REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Jesus' concrete, everyday images in this reading communicate the ultimate purpose for good human behavior: glorifying God. The first image comes from the culinary arts. Salt, when functioning correctly, adds flavor to food. It makes it tasty or tastier. Should it be rendered tasteless, such salt cannot achieve the good end for which it exists. Accordingly, it is then only good for paving grit.

A second image, the light of a lamp, also has its own proper purpose. A lit lamp exists to illuminate a dark space. Lighting a lamp and then concealing its light renders the lamp useless. In order for a lamp to achieve its ultimate purpose (the good for which it exists), it is lit and set in a prominent place so as to shed light.

Likewise, cities built on elevated terrain are conspicuous and have their own purpose. They function as lookouts and not as secret military camps. Therefore, it is neither possible nor sensible to try to hide them.

Ultimately, Jesus uses these images to describe how God has designed good human behavior to function. The ultimate purpose of upright human behavior is not to attract attention, honor, or accolades to the performers of such deeds. Rather, the purpose of good deeds is to glorify God. Consequently, when we, as disciples of Christ, engage in good behavior we are to do so in a way that promotes God's glory, not our own. Should we garner honor for our good deeds, we do well to embrace the lowliness of the cross and direct the attention of observers to God, who enables us to perform such good deeds and expresses glory through them.

THEMES: 5TH SUNDAY, ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

This week's themes highlight the call to care for others and shine in the world. The readings show how kindness, faith, and good actions bring light and hope.

- ♦ Helping Those in Need: Giving food, shelter, and clothing to others brings healing and joy. When people help those who suffer, they find peace and feel closer to God..
- ♦ Living by Faith: Faith should rest on God's power, not on human knowledge. Trusting in Him gives strength, even when feeling weak.
- ♦ Being a Light: Jesus calls people to shine by doing good. When others see kindness and love, they are drawn closer to God.
- ♦ Making a Difference: Just as salt changes food, people can change the world. Small acts of goodness bring hope and encouragement.
- ♦ Showing God's Love: Faith is not just words but actions. Loving others reflects God's goodness in everyday life.
- ♦ Overcoming Fear with Trust: Weakness and fear should not stop people from sharing their faith. Trusting in God's help brings courage.
- ♦ Glorifying God: Good works should not be done for attention. They should point others to God and His goodness.

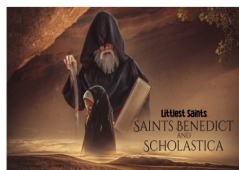

The 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, reminds people to share, trust and shine. When they live with kindness and faith, they bring hope to the world.
